ATMOSPHERE

PROOF OF CONCEPT

These are certainly uncertain times

And the stakes are quite high for those making real estate portfolio decisions that will affect organizational culture and performance for years to come. But in the face of this anxiety, there's a low-risk and high-reward solution: the pilot space.

Be 100% sure

Workers want flexibility and employers need certainty

Figuring out how to plan for facilities or real estate needs in the now, near and far can be daunting, and new design concepts can help support new ways of working and connecting in online and offline ways.

Our Pilot Spaces Program can help you explore the impact that physical space has on employee engagement, productivity and well-being through a demonstration of furniture and technology applications.

EXPERIMENT & LEARN

Where will you have the biggest gain?
Support multiple work modes in a range of settings for users to “live” in – to truly experience new ways of working.
